

Road Trip to the Birthplaces and Homes of the Patriots of the American Revolution

NEW HAMPSHIRE: NICHOLAS GILMAN, JR.

American Independence Museum

1 Governors Ln, Exeter, New Hampshire

One of New Hampshire's first brick houses built in 1721 by Nathaniel Ladd. Purchased in 1747 by Daniel Gilman and home to Nicholas Gilman, Jr. Now a part of Exeter's American Independence Museum.

MASSACHUSETTS: JOHN WINSLOW | JAMES WARREN

Winslow-Warren House

165 Main Street, Plymouth, Massachusetts

Originally constructed in 1726 by British Gen. John Winslow. In 1757, James Warren and his wife, Mercy Otis moved into the house. The Warrens were among the leading Patriots of the Revolutionary era.

MASSACHUSETTS: JAMES OTIS

Osgood House

440 Osgood St, North Andover, Massachusetts

Owned by Jacob Osgood, friend and host to James Otis. Otis spent nearly two years at the Osgood farm recuperating from a head injury and was killed here by lightning in 1783.

MASSACHUSETTS: TIMOTHY PICKERING

The Pickering House

18 Broad St, Salem, Massachusetts

Home of Col. Timothy Pickering. Built in 1660, the property is one of America's oldest house and was home to a single family for over three and a half centuries.

CONNECTICUT: OLIVER ELLSWORTHOliver Ellsworth Homestead

778 Palisado Ave, Windsor, Connecticut

Also known as Elmwood, built in 1781. The original house is a two story wood frame on a stone foundation and was continuously occupied by the family of Oliver Ellsworth until 1903.

CONNECTICUT: NATHAN HALENathan Hale Homestead Museum

2299 South St, Coventry, Connecticut

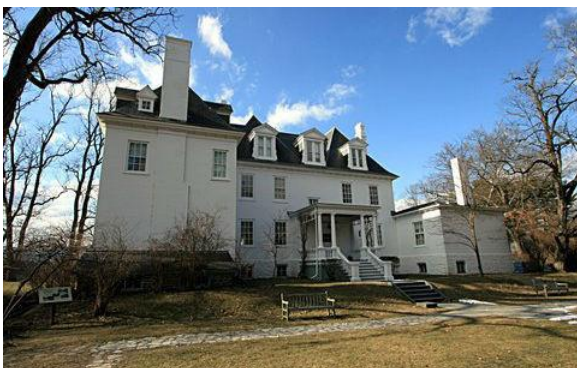

Home of Nathan Hale, it is also known as the Deacon Richard Hale House. The house was sold to a series of other families for private residence. Today, it operates as a historic house museum.

NEW YORK: GOUVERNEUR MORRISGouverneur Museum

30 Church St, Gouverneur, New York

Built as a residence for Gouverneur Morris when he visited his large landholdings in the north and for use by his land agents. Called a "mansion" because it was bigger than other homes in the area.

NEW YORK: ROBERT LIVINGSTONClermont Manor

Clermont State Park, Germantown, New York

The Clermont State Historic Site, also known as the Clermont Manor, was the former estate of the family of Robert Livingston, seven generations of whom lived on the site over more than two centuries.

NEW YORK: JOHN JAY

John Jay Homestead

400 Jay St, Katonah, New York

Located in Katonah, New York. The homestead is also known as Bedford House or as John Jay House. It was the home of statesman John Jay, first Chief Justice of the United States..

NEW YORK: THOMAS PAINE

Thomas Paine Cottage Museum

20 Sicard Ave, New Rochelle, New York

The Thomas Paine Cottage is the last structure in North America that the Founding Father, Thomas Paine, owned as his home and is open to the public as a historic house museum.

NEW YORK: ALEXANDER HAMILTON

Hamilton Grange National Memorial

414 W 141st St, New York, New York

Named "The Grange" after Hamilton's grandfather's estate in Scotland. Home of Alexander Hamilton which was completed in 1802, and has been relocated twice, first in 1889 and again in 2006.

NEW YORK: RUFUS KING

King Manor Museum

150-03 Jamaica Ave, Jamaica, New York

The home of Rufus King, one of America's founding fathers and signer of the Constitution, where he lived until 1825.

NEW JERSEY: JOHN BERRIEN

Rockingham Historic Site

84 Laurel Ave, Kingston, New Jersey

Birthplace of John Berrien and was George Washington's final headquarters of the Revolutionary War. It is believed to be the second oldest house in the Millstone River Valley.

DELAWARE: JOHN DICKINSON

John Dickinson Plantation

340 Kitts Hummock Rd, Dover, Delaware

Generally known as Poplar Hall, this property was home to John Dickinson, known as the "penman of the Revolution". The mansion opened as a museum in May 1956 and is still in operation to this day.

VIRGINIA: JAMES MADISON

Belle Grove Plantation

336 Belle Grove Rd, Middletown, Virginia

Belle Grove is a historic plantation and the birthplace of James Madison, the fourth President of the United States, in an earlier house which no longer stands.

VIRGINIA: GEORGE WASHINGTON

George Washington's Mount Vernon

200 Mount Vernon Hwy, Mt Vernon, Virginia

Home of George Washington built in 1735. The house began as a one and a half story farmhouse and was slowly enlarged for the next 45 years after George acquired the property in 1754.

VIRGINIA: GEORGE MASON

Gunston Hall

10709 Gunston Rd, Lorton, Virginia

Home of the United States Founding Father George Mason. Built in the 18th-century and located near the Potomac River in Mason Neck, Virginia, USA.

VIRGINIA: JAMES MADISON

James Madison's Montpelier

11350 Constitution Hwy, Montpelier Station, Virginia

James Madison's Montpelier was home to the Madison family, including fourth President of the United States, James Madison, and his wife Dolley.

VIRGINIA: GEORGE WASHINGTON

George Washington Birthplace National Monument

1732 Popes Creek Road, Colonial Beach, Virginia

Established in the 17th century as a colonial plantation, George Washington was born and lived here until age three, returning later to live here as a teenager.

VIRGINIA: JAMES MONROE

James Monroe's Highland

2050 James Monroe Pkwy, Charlottesville, Virginia

Owned and operated by Pres. James Monroe for twenty-four years. Today, it serves as a reminder of the invisible work force that enabled the plantation system to work and thrive.

VIRGINIA: PATRICK HENRY

Patrick Henry's Scotchtown

16120 Chiswell Ln, Beaverdam, Virginia

The only original standing home of the Patriot and Orator of the American Revolution, Patrick Henry. He lived here from 1771-1778 and where he formulated the ideas of his "Liberty or Death" speech.

VIRGINIA: JOHN MARSHALL

The John Marshall House

818 E Marshall St, Richmond, Virginia

Built in 1790 by John Marshall, known as the Great Chief Justice of the United States. He lived there for forty-five years until his death in 1835.

VIRGINIA: PATRICK HENRY

Red Hill Patrick Henry National Memorial

1250 Red Hill Rd, Brookneal, Virginia

Last home and burial place of the "voice of American liberty", Patrick Henry.

GEORGIA: JOHN BERRIEN

Berrien House

322 E Broughton St, Savannah, Georgia

Home of Revolutionary War hero Major John Berrien and his son Senator John Macpherson Berrien, "America's Cicero."